Comments:

Attached is an 892 with a proper listing and the references in question. My mistake was that I thought all the references listed in and at that end of the specification were present in the IDS-I used the references cited on page 21 of the specification. In addition, I also noted that the 102 rejection referred to a reference that was not provided. Worse, the name was misspelled, so it would have been very difficult to be sure what the reference was.

I will have the references and 892 scanned into the electronic file as well.

Sorry for the inconvenience.

Joseph Voitach
